AFFAIRS OF THE DISTRICT.

Action of the Commissioners on Ex-Mayor Emery's Death.

A Park Street Resident's Objection to a Telegraph Pole—Policeman Exonerated for Non-Payment of Money Loaned at High Interest.

The District Commissioners yesterday took formal action upon the death of the late Matthew G. Emery, formerly Mayor of Washington. Their expression of esteem for Mr. Emery and the suspension of business during the afternoon of the funeral is set forth in the following resolution:

"The Commissioners of the District of Columbia learn with deep sorrow of the decease, at 12:10 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, of the Hon. Matthew Gault Emery, who was mayor of the city of Washington from June, 1870, to June, 1871.

"In the death of Mr. Emery the community has lost one of its most eminent and respected citizens, whose private life was an inspiration to right living, and whose business enterprise and public spirit were potent factors in enhancing the prosperity and improvement of the National Capital.

"As a mark of respect to his memory it is ordered:

"That the flag on the Municipal Building be displayed at half-mast until after the funeral; that the Commissioners attend the obsequies, and that this order be spread upon the minutes of the Board and a copy thereof be furnished the family of the deceased."

G. M. Emmerich, of the German Fire Insurance Company, some time ago complained to the Commissioners against the setting of a pole in front of his premises on Park Street northwest, alleging that it was unsightly and occupied too much space on the sidewalk. The matter was referred to the Electrical Department, and it was reported that the pole in question was necessary for the extension of the District fire-alarm service. The Commissioners approved the recommendation of the Electrical Engineer that the pole should remain in its present position.

The Commissioners received another communication yesterday from Mr. Emmerich, in which he says:

"On the 4th instant I addressed a letter to you protesting against the erection of a telephone pole in front of my premises at the southeast corner of Park and Pine Streets, Mount Pleasant.

"Since that date, I have learned through the daily newspapers that the pole referred to was erected by the District for its relation to the extension of the fire-alarm service of the District. The pole does not interfere with the traffic on the street, nor does he consider it a detriment to my property, both of which points I submitted as my objection to the pole.

"While I do not desire to underestimate the opinion of the Electrical Engineer, I beg to say that his opinion in this matter is at variance not alone with my own, but with the expressed opinion of many of the citizens and property owners in my neighborhood.

"The pole is erected on the inner edge of the narrow sidewalk on Park Street, on a line with my fence as now established by the street and about six feet from my fence on Pine Street. It is my intention to move the Park Street fence back to its original position, and to erect a new fence recently by other property holders on Park Street. When that is done the pole in its present position will be outside of the fence line, which will most certainly be a great obstruction to travel on the street.

"Aside from the objections mentioned, the proposed extension of Sixteenth Street affects my property in such a way as to leave me only a small triangular piece of ground after the ground necessary for the street is taken by the Government. In order to give any value whatever to the remaining ground left to me for building purposes, it will be necessary to erect the improvements within a very few feet of Park Street, and the proposed extension of Sixteenth Street will be within a very few feet of the objectionable pole. This would make the pole an obstruction to the use of the property, so much so as to unquestionably interfere with the sale or comfortable use of the property.

"I happen to be one of that large class of property owners made to suffer by the long and tedious delay in relation to the extension of Sixteenth Street. I respectfully appeal to you to relieve me of this pole, which is an obstruction to the use of the property, and which will be doing nothing more than granting to me that justice and equity due me in the premises."

The Commissioners yesterday passed upon the case of Private J. E. Barnes, who was charged before the trial board of the Police Department with the non-payment of a debt. After the investigation of the case the trial board pronounced the officer not guilty.

In forwarding the case to the Commissioners, Major Sylvester recommended that the charges be dismissed, which the Commissioners have approved.

The case was founded upon a claim made by Henry C. Terrell that he had loaned money to Barnes on a personal note, upon which there was still due $21.

A judgment for the amount and costs had been secured by default before a magistrate. The magistrate found that Barnes had paid in interest $40.00 on the note of $54. Hence the finding of the trial board and the action of the Commissioners.

Commissioner Ross has approved the recommendation of Major Sylvester in the case of Private J. E. Barnes, of the Police Department, and has forwarded the papers in the case to his associates. The charges against Barnes were that he was guilty of conduct unbecoming a policeman in giving certain evidence in court against a prisoner. The charges were not sustained and the trial board recommended that the charges be dismissed. Major Sylvester sent to Commissioner Ross the following report on the case:

"In view of the statements of Judge Kimball and Capt. J. E. Hoffman, and the officer's general good record since 1891, I have to recommend that the charges be dismissed, not, however, without the warning that the members of the force should exercise due diligence in giving testimony before the Police Court, so that it may not be construed as a departure from the truth.

"It is most important to an officer's good record, to the public welfare, and to the rights of individuals that testimony given should be straightforward and honest, so that the humblest individual may not suffer thereby."

Henry J. Kintz, of 48 New Jersey Avenue southeast, recently asked permission to store and ship street sweepings on the west side of the James Creek Canal, between N and O Streets.

Yesterday the Engineer Commissioner, in passing upon the application, recommended that Mr. Kintz be informed that the Commissioners cannot permit the occupancy of the public land adjacent to the James Creek Canal without lease. He recommended further that testimony given should be straightforward and honest, so that the humblest individual may not suffer thereby.

Acting upon a recommendation from the Assessor's Office, the Commissioners have voted to grant the application of J. M. Vale for the annulment of water main tax upon property assessed to Anne E. Beale, on Brightwood Avenue. The case is in all respects similar to that of C. Lancaster, upon which the Commissioners took the same action several months ago upon the advice of their attorney.

The Superintendent of Repairs has transmitted to the Commissioners a schedule of bids for furnishing and connecting radiators at the Franklin School building, and recommends that the bid of Forsberg & Murray be accepted.

The Commissioners have approved a recommendation of the Surveyor of the District for the promotion of Irving Totten to be a temporary clerk at $2.40 per diem, to take effect October 7.

NO CLEW TO THE BURGLARS.

Detectives Still at Sea Regarding the Davis Robbery.

The Headquarters detectives are still busily engaged in investigating the circumstances attending the theft of over $200 worth of jewelry from the home of Lewis Johnson Davis, 163 Massachusetts Avenue northwest, Saturday night. They are convinced that the robbery was not the work of second-story thieves, as was at first reported.

The only window that was open at the time of the robbery was a bathroom window on the second floor, which could be closed through the line of fence established recently by other property holders on Park Street. When that is done the pole in its present position will be outside of the fence line, which will most certainly be a great obstruction to travel on the street.

"Aside from the objections mentioned, the proposed extension of Sixteenth Street affects my property in such a way as to leave me only a small triangular piece of ground after the ground necessary for the street is taken by the Government.
